▶ Meet other Asian community leaders in the Triangle and start building Asian-American unity and leadership.

This conference on Saturday, June 11, will be part of a visit to North Carolina by the President's Advisory Commission for the White House Initiative on Asian-Americans and Pacific Islanders (www.aapi.gov). The Commission is visiting Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill as a model area for emerging Asian American leadership. Community-based organizations are also hosting a Welcome Reception on Friday, June 10, 6:30 PM, at the Brier Creek Country Club. All of the Triangle's AAPI communities - Chinese, Taiwanese, Indian, Korean, Vietnamese, Filipino, Japanese, South and Southeast Asian, and others – are invited to participate. There is a recommended donation of $30 per person (or $25 if member of an organization below, $15 with student ID) but the Technical Assistance Conference is FREE.

- Reception sponsors are:
- NAAAP-NC - National Association of Asian-American Professionals, North Carolina Chapter <http://www.naaap-nc.org>,
